To Whom It May Concern:

I believe that my extensive practical knowledge managing video edits from ingestion to publication, make me the ideal candidate for a position as senior editor or post-production supervisor.

I have been working as a freelance colorist (Davinci & Symphony) and as video editor (Avid & Premiere) in both New York City (10 years) and London (2 years) for the last twelve years.

I'd like to highlight my work for Discovery Channel, Netflix and The New York Times but also for Condè Nast, Time Inc. and Own.

My reels are available at www.GabrieleCassia.com

Yours,

Gabriele Cassia
